

CEIA (Italian acronym for Associated Consultants and Investors) is a multi-disciplinary reality that uses its assets (such as financial, business management and relationship skills) or those of the related network, to design and execute high profitability projects in the industrial and services sectors.

CEIA qualifies as a professional, managerial and entrepreneurial reference at the side of investors, companies and organizations, operating as an entity skilled in the approach, development and implementation of innovative projects in the industrial and services sectors.