

Merging and Acquisition of companies

- selection of target group/company
- detailed analysis of the target and opportunity assessment
- due diligence management
- planning and execution of the investment
- strategic and operational management with participation in the Board of Directors and/or company management
- identification of opportunities for a way-out