

Corporate finance

- supporting business initiatives by drafting feasibility studies, business plans and reports
- analysis, planning and monitoring of investment projects
- assessments of businesses or business units
- planning and execution of industrial and financial restructuring for companies or groups of companies in difficulty (consulting, participation in the management team of the company, involvement in corporate bodies)